

It's Your Choice Nature's Ingredients or Potentially Harmful Chemicals

When it comes to topical pain relievers, Real Time Pain Relief beats out the competitors like a pro. Of the Top 10 Selling topical pain relievers, only Real Time Pain Relief focuses on the use of time-tested Nature's Ingredients.

Why? Well perhaps it's because other topical pain relief products are produced with a big business mentality in which the bottom line is the primary focus.

Our family owned and operated business has made the choice to deliver products rich in Nature's Ingredients and free of harsh chemicals. Since Real Time Pain Relief products were originally formulated for friends and family and are now used by families across the country, it's a decision we won't back down on.
